Claims 1-6 and 15-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 5 the phrase "worm to be driven by a driving source" is vague and indefinite. It is unclear whether or not a worm driving means is being claimed. The preamble of the claim recites that a clamping device is being claimed. If there is no positive recitation of a means for driving the worm then no operative clamping device is being claimed and the structure recited in the claim is incapable of performing the function recited in the preamble of the claim. If a worm driving means is not being claimed then the claim does not present a complete operative device since the subsequent "contact of the clamping arm with the workpiece" could not take place.

Applicant's remarks have been given careful consideration. Applicant's amendment merely inferentially includes a "driving source" without positively claiming a driving source as a claim limitation. If indeed applicant is genuinely trying to positively claim the driving source then after line 4 of claim 1 applicant should recite -- a worm driving source; -- before the line reciting "a worm to be driven by the driving source".

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
